

FOR STEALING SEIZED OPIUM.
Lawyer Stein and Deputy Collector Lyttle of Ogdensburg Arrested.

BUFFALO, Aug. 24.—Deputy United States Marshals Cavanaugh and Kranz of the city caused a veritable sensation in Ogdensburg yesterday by arresting three of its most reputed residents, John W. Sturz, a lawyer; Nathaniel H. Ervin, Jr., deputy collector of customs at Ogdensburg, and William J. Cumminskey, janitor of the custom house. Warrants for their arrest were issued before the State Stages Commissioner Farrelly here by J. J. Crowley and Maurice F. Holahan, special agents of the Treasury Department at Washington. The chief charge is robbery.

That at the city of Ogdensburg they did willfully combine to conspire, confederate, and agree together to commit the offense of robbery, and to take away from the possession of the United States, which was then there in custody, embezzles, steal, purloin, and take away from the possession of the United States, and kept and stored in a preceding overt act, the sum of $20,000, and that they, pursuant to such unlawful combination, confederacy and agreement, effected the same, and that the United States, having been so defrauded, at said Ogdensburg, feloniously steal, purloin, and keep the sum of $20,000, and the Custom House 100 percent of the proceeds of the same.

This is an outcome of the arrest of Ervin R. Gardner in Ogdensburg last winter, when he and his co-conspirator, Sturz, had $25,000 worth of opium in their possession. Ervin Gardner was arrested a day or two ago in Chicago, in connection with the Ogdensburg robbery, and was held in custody offering opium for sale there, and it did not take long for the Government officers to discover that it was embezzled, in fact, that he had paid $20,000 for it, and that it had been found in his possession and that of his cousin last winter. This led to sensational developments once more.

The principal issue brought to Buffalo, and the examination was adjourned until to-morrow. Bail was demanded in the sum of $20,000 each. Being unable to furnish that amount, the prisoners were remanded to jail.

Fourty State Fruitt Peddlers Fined.

FORTY peddlers who were arrested in Hester Street were fined $5 each by Justice Duffy of the Essex Court. The peddlers, who came from New England, told him: "You are all able-bodied men and ought to do manual labor instead of selling stale fruit."

Newman's Ball Perfected.

Gustavus August Wong, who abdicated and renounced fifteen years ago, May 1st, last July, has jumped his ball of $500. Bonds were furnished for his appearance on Thursday by Leopold Adler, a furrier, at 73 St. Mark's Place. When his case was called, he was not there, and his bondsmen failed to produce him yesterday. His bond was forfeited. The evidence against Newman was complete.
